

LIST OF CANDIDATES 2019

International Elected Officers

The International Election Committee (IEC) has received and approved the following nominations for the positions of International Elected Officers. All nominations have been submitted by National Mensa Committees, there are no nominations by members' petition. The IEC had to determine solely the compliance with the rules and regulations and does not make any statement as to the content of the materials received. The order in which the candidates are listed has been determined by lot and does not reflect any rank, seniority or recommendation. The same order is used on the ballot paper and in the presentation of the candidate materials.
